

CREATIVE WRITING CAMPAIGN GUIDELINES

CONTENT:

The theme is compassion. Authors are asked to describe a situation in which compassion is evident. The work may be factual or fictional, but it must be original and fiction must be clearly identified.

LENGTH:

Pre-School: group project – may be individual comments recorded by teacher

Elementary students: 500 words or less

Middle School students: 500 – 1000 words

Secondary School students, adult community members: 1000-2500 words

LANGUAGE:

Foul language will disqualify an entry. It is the responsibility of the authors and their teachers, where applicable, to ensure proper spelling, punctuation and grammar.

ART:

Where possible, original artwork will be included in the publication.

COPYRIGHT:

If chosen for publication, copyright of the work is owned by Forward House. Credit will be given to the writer. A written standard release must also be signed and mailed to